

GENDER EQUITY

Bowling has an almost equal representation of men and women in its participation base. Opportunities to participate, coach, officiate, and administer our sport are available equally to both men and women across Canada.